21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(C). Crayton stated that he understood that the magistrate judge is not a United States District Judge, and Crayton consented to pleading before the magistrate judge. This Court referred Crayton's plea of guilty to the magistrate judge for the purpose of administering the allocution, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11, making a finding as to whether the plea was knowingly and voluntarily entered, and recommending to this Court whether the plea should be accepted.

Based upon Crayton's statements during the plea hearing, and the Government's proffer establishing that an independent factual basis for the plea existed, the magistrate judge found that Crayton was competent to enter a plea, that the plea was freely and voluntarily given, that Crayton was aware of the nature of the charges against him and the consequences of his plea, and that a factual basis existed for the tendered plea. The magistrate judge issued a Report and Recommendation Concerning Plea of Guilty in Felony Case ("R&R") [Dkt. No. 38] finding a factual basis for the plea and recommending that this Court accept Crayton's plea of guilty to Counts One, Two, Three, and Four of the Indictment.

The magistrate judge also directed the parties to file any written objections to the R&R within fourteen (14) days after service of the R&R. He further advised that failure to file objections would result in a waiver of the right to appeal from a judgment of this Court based on the R&R. Neither Crayton nor the Government filed objections to the R&R.

Accordingly, this Court ADOPTS the magistrate judge's R&R [Dkt. No. 38], provisionally ACCEPTS Crayton's guilty plea, and ADJUDGES him GUILTY of the crimes charged in Count One, Count Two, Count Three, and Count Four of the Indictment.

Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(3) and U.S.S.G. § 6B1.1(c), the Court DEFERS acceptance of the proposed plea until it has received and reviewed the presentence investigation report prepared in this matter.

Pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 6A1 et seq., the Court ORDERS the following:

1. The Probation Officer shall undertake a presentence investigation of Crayton, and prepare a presentence investigation report for the Court;
